LOCATION: Obrońców Tobruku Street is a great location—where the city meets nature and history. Fort Bema—the green and inspiring heart of the district. Fort Bema is a historic 19th-century structure, now transformed into a picturesque park with paths, an old moat, bridges, and wild vegetation. Recreation and events—all in one place. The park areas are available year-round and offer numerous options for active leisure: walking, running, cycling, rollerblading, outdoor gyms, playgrounds—including a large square inspired by fortress buildings and an outdoor street art gallery. Excellent transport links and urban infrastructure.

Location on ul. Obrońców Tobruku provides excellent access to transport – buses, trams, as well as proximity to new metro stations. Nearby you will find the modern OSiR Bemowo Hall, a former hangar transformed into a modern sports and event facility that hosts both matches and events. Shopping malls, educational institutions, and service facilities are also nearby – the complete convenience of city life.
